

The Canadian Broadcast Corporation (CBC) has been asked countless times to expose male suicide in Canada in relation to bullying & dysfunction in our family law courts.

Suicide rates: An overview

Statistics Canada Catalogue no. 82-624-X

by Tanya Navaneelan

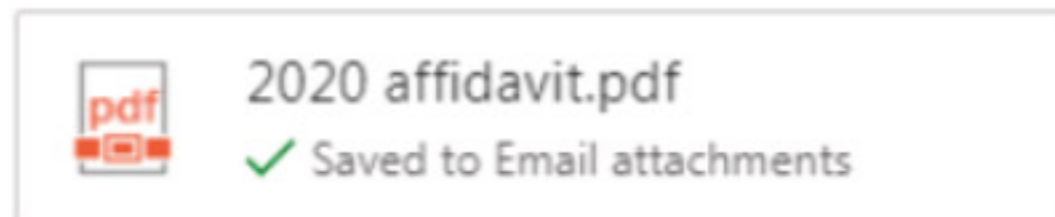

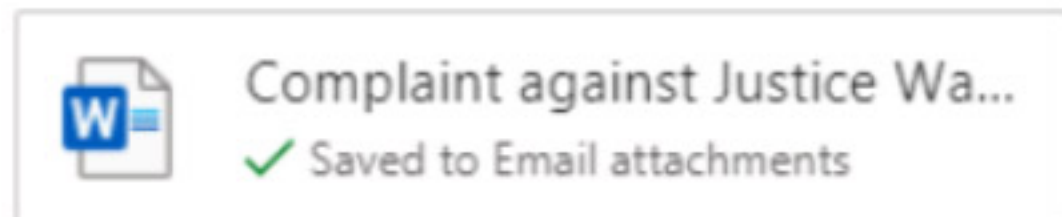

Highlights

- In 2009 there were 3,890 suicides in Canada, a rate of 11.5 per 100,000 people.
- The suicide rate for males was three times higher than the rate for females (17.9 versus 5.3 per 100,000).
- Although suicide deaths affect almost all age groups, those aged 40 to 59 had the highest rates.
- Married people had a lower suicide rate than those who were single, divorced or widowed.

Hello CBC Ombudsmen,

I have contacted your State run CBC many times with powerful documents & videos exposing the reason for the high suicide rate of dads between the ages of 40 & 59 in Canada. The CBC has ignored all my correspondence.

Over 1000 dads each year are bullied into suicide by Canada's billion dollar "for profit" family law enterprise. Family law kills thousands of dads and is the root cause for our staggering high child poverty rate. Lawyers & judges get rich(some do it for jollies & power too) as families get poor. CBC pretends male issues are of less significance compared to issues affecting females. As journalist Christie Blatchford showed, male suicide caused by our family courts affects more than just men, as it affects new spouses and the children and society in general. Re: "BC man pleads for family court reform in suicide note". I am sad that CBC pretends they can't see.

I feel the CBC should be investigated for hate crimes against dads. CBC is ignoring the bias & deaths of fathers caused by our billion dollar non regulated & very secretive "for profit" family law industry in Canada.

I am a dad & have been relentlessly bullied by the New Westminster, BC supreme family law courts.
I am a suicide survivor.

PS: the word document is a complaint in progress against Justice Ward Branch who attacked me this past March 9th. (audio available)

Thank you for your email and the attachment documents.

CBC's Office of the Ombudsman is independent of CBC News management and thus has no say in day-to-day decision-making about which stories are covered. My mandate is to determine whether information content the CBC has produced fully respects CBC's journalism policy. Establishing editorial priorities is, appropriately, the prerogative of programmers. In other words, I'm limited in what I can do in this instance.

However, I have shared your email directly with Brodie Fenlon, Editor in Chief of CBC News, so that he will be aware of your concerns.

Sincerely,

Jack Nagler

Hello CBC Ombudsmen (Jack Nagler),

My email regarding CBC's possibility of misandry (hatred of dads & sons) & the CBC's refusal to see the connection between male suicide & our billion dollar family law industry was sent our to you at 7:23 am today & you wrote back at 7:59 am the same day.

How is it that you read all the evidence I provided to you, that included other news media had reported on dads being bullied into suicide by Canada's family law industry & five other documents, but you wrote off my concerns in 37 minutes flat. I find it remarkable that you read or gave this issue any thought. This further leads me to believe the CBC has made up it's mind to bury facts around male suicide because of their ingrained military grade feminist bias against men & issues facing dads & sons.

Am I wrong Jack Nagler, or are you an extraordinary speed reader and deep thinker. 37 minutes flat!

Regards,
